CONTENTS

FOREWORD TO THE ENGLISH-LANGUAGE EDITION 9

INTRODUCTION 13

I. SOURCES 19
   1. Old East Slavic chronicles 21
      1.1. The Primary Chronicle (PVL) 23
      1.2. The Kievan Chronicle (KC) 43
      1.3. The Galician–Volhynian Chronicle (GVC) 63
   2. Latin-language sources 76
      2.1. Hungarian narrative sources 76
      2.2. Hungarian charters 88
      2.3. Polish sources 96

II. MARRIAGES, ALLIANCES, MILITARY CAMPAIGNS 101
   1. Early connections, scarce data 101
      1.1. The Hungarian conquest of the Carpathian Basin 104
           and Sviatoslav’s coalition
      1.2. Marriages and requests for assistance 106
         1.2.1. King Saint Stephen (997–1038) and Prince Vladimir 107
                (978–1015)
         1.2.2. King Andrew I (1046–1060) and Yaroslav the Wise 110
                (1019–1054)
         1.2.3. The career of Duke Ladislaus and his diplomacy 115
                as King Ladislaus I (1077–1095)
         1.2.4. King Coloman (1095–1116) and the marriages 117
                of the early 12th century
         1.2.5. King Géza II (1141–1162) and Grand Prince Iziaslav 119
                Mstislavich (1146–1154)
         1.2.6. Princesses and aristocrats 120

5